PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Lions

Smells like fall, winter is coming! I don't know about the rest of you but I love the changes in weather. It rejuvenates me!

A huge congratulation to Lion Maverick and his crew for pulling off a successful meeting. And those pork loins were to die for! Thanks Lion Maverick

Everyone must take time to sit and watch the leaves turn.

NEXT MEETING

At the time of the ROAR's publication, Lion 1st V.P. Maverick had not yet finalized our guest speaker. Come to the meeting and see who he rounds up!

LAST MEETING

Due to scheduling conflicts, we were not able to get into the Sportsman's Club for the planned shooting competition. We instead met at Kerr Park and were able to enjoy each others company as well as the company of Lions visiting from the Modesto 500 Lions Club. Lion Bill Jeffers said that he would try to arrange another trap shoot for anyone who is interested in trying to unseat the reigning champion, Lion President Dan Casey.

Calendars

Lion George Vieths has advised us that we have until September 25 to turn in any new listings for the calendar project. The calendar project is undergoing some
